ABOUT THE COLLEGE

The Union Christian College (UCC), Aluva was founded in 1921 as an ecumenical Indian Christian initiative in the field of higher education in Kerala. The college was founded by four young visionaries – Shri. K.C. Chacko, Shri. A.M. Varki, Shri. C.P. Mathew and Shri. V.M. Ittyerah, who were alumni of Madras Christian College. Providentially inspired by their Christian faith and commitment, they envisaged the institution based on the values of integrity and social commitment, promoting learning and culture. Affiliated to Madras and Kerala university in its early years, and currently to Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, the institution has emerged as a frontrunner in academic excellence and research potential.

The college has 18 academic departments, with around 2500 students and 160 faculty members. Rated with an 'A' Grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), the college is a unique centre of higher education in Kerala with an ecumenical character and cosmopolitan outlook.
